The Roman Archaeology Conference 10

Frankfurt am Main, Germany, 29 March – 1 April 2012

The Roman Archaeology Conference is the premier Roman archaeological conference in the United Kingdom. It is a biennial event – RAC 2010 was held in Oxford (rac2010.classics.ox.ac.uk/) – under the aegis of the Roman Society that brings together interested parties from all sectors to present and discuss the latest archaeological discoveries from the Roman world and beyond.

In 2012 the event is to be held for the first time in continental Europe. At the invitation of the Roman Society, RAC 2012 will be hosted by the Römisch-Germanische Kommission des Deutschen Archäologischen Instituts in Frankfurt am Main from 29 March to 1 April 2012.

Proposals are now invited for conference sessions.

Sessions will normally last 3 hours plus break, and consist of 5-6 papers. Those wishing to organize sessions should submit an abstract no longer than 500 words on the proposed topic, content and aims, together with a list of speakers and titles of papers.

Proposals should be submitted by February 28 2011. They should be sent by email to the organising committee:
