

CALL FOR PAPERS – DEADLINE 30 May 2016

The Institute of History at the University of Warsaw will be hosting the conference
The Aegean and the Levant at the Turn of the Bronze Age and early Iron Age
to be held from 27-28 September 2016.

The conference will be sponsored by the National Programme for the Development of Humanities.

We are pleased to invite proposals for papers. The abstracts of no more than 200 words should be sent to Łukasz Niesiołowski-Spanò l.niesiolowski@uw.edu.pl no later than 30 May 2016.

Confirmed keynote speakers:

Jan Paul Crielaard (VU University Amsterdam), Gunnel Ekroth (Uppsala Universitet), Alexander Fantalkin (Tel Aviv University), Antonis Kotsonas (University of Cincinnati), and Aren Maeir (Bar-Ilan University).

The broadly defined aim of this conference – combining the import of archaeological, historical, and linguistic studies in the field – is to offer a fresh and multidisciplinary reassessment of the relationships between The Aegean and the Levant ca. 1300-900 BCE, i.e. in the period of when a series of decisive historical transformations in the Eastern Mediterranean took place.
